

The Oregonian

[illegible]

OL. 25, NO. 7888.

P. GREGORY & SONS
5 North Front St., Portland, Importers and Dealers in Non-working Machinery
PUMPS, TIGERS, MOTORS, AND-FAFERING MACHINES,
Saws, BOLLING MACHINES, SAWS, SCROLL SAWS,
Lumber and Leather Belts
AND
ALL FINDINGS GENERALLY.

THE

Not an Edition
DAILY OREGON
a Special and Journal.
The Issue of Aug.
contain the follow-

IN BENJAMIN WRIGHT," the in this series carries the captain into a most exin the camp of the fit, Jaquim Murrita.

RELL," theatrical mutiand London, the po-French politics occup-edient Grey, and I new m-phibiting the usual form topic in this week's let-TER, Mr. Hatten
of the coming revo-
land, which is deca-
turn existing institutions the reader a glimpse of a Soudou, the great P-mist.

BOOK NOTES," in interest-of the late firm of Gis first presented; the
in this issue by Mr. L-interesting problem of
with our ex press Jents used.

SWIG HOLSTEIN," article I series treats of the "spor-times of this quaint peohood in maturity, well to be met and traditi-

ING VS. PROVIDENCE," a sto-New York life written exp-of the "Sunday Oregon," Louise Chénille "Multi-

ALION SKETCHES," Mr. Act-this week is mainly devtents and adventures a-tain many, all of intimaand, exhibit some ures of "great war.

ER DAYS," the emigra-
of the late firm of G-
of the subject of III of a "series of sllight is thrown on a controversy by this sket-

SUN DOWN SPRING," a charm-from Arizona in the dred building and mining written by Ella Thom-

Social, Literary, Rand other features, R-
the News

MACHINERY

PARKE & LAC
65 N. Front St., Portland, O.